Joseph Gaynor "Joe" Pugh

Joseph Gaynor "Joe" Pugh, 73, of Trout, left this earth for his pain free home in Heaven on Monday, July 5, 2021.

He was born June 25, 1948, to the union of Ferbia Greene Pugh and Whitmell Hill Pugh.

Joe graduated from Monterey High School and attended Northeast Louisiana University before taking on such endeavors as tying steel at the locks and dam structure in Columbia and on skyscrapers in Miami, then taking over the family cotton and soybean farm.

In addition to being a lifelong cattleman, Joe's true expertise, working in the oilfield, started when he was still in high school, working as a roustabout on the weekends and holidays. After farming, he enjoyed the challenge of being an oilfield consultant for over 40 years. It gave him great joy to give advice and to mentor those starting out in the industry.

Joe was steadfast, loyal, and above all, an extremely generous man- always giving of his time and knowledge. His greatest joy was receiving texts and videos from his grandchildren and their personal, one on one discussions about life's challenges and their daily experiences.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a sister, Connie Smith; and a brother, Bill Pugh.

He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Melba Poole Pugh; his daughters, Johanna Pugh (Wayne Bridges) of Dallas, TX, and Brandi Pugh Poole (Clay) of Portland, AR; his son, Jarred Pugh (Nicki) of Trout; eight grandchildren, Katie Guidry (Cliff), Todd Bridges, Lucie Pugh, Ella Grace Poole, Lila Pugh, Ava Clayton Poole, Laurel Pugh, and Lachlan Pugh; two great grandchildren, Kaden Bloxum and Colin Guidry; one brother, T. D. Pugh (Lillian), one sister, Joyce Spinks (Phillip); a host of nieces and nephews; and numerous lifelong friends and business associates.

A private graveside ceremony was held Friday, July 9, at Restland Memorial Gardens in Pineville, officiated by Rev. Terry Townsend.

The family requests memorials be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital (stjude.org), The Gideons International (gideons.org), or any organization of your choice. The family mailing address is P.O. Box 380, Trout, LA 71371.
