 Husband, Father,
 Grandfather, Friend

One year ago, you left us and as we struggle to understand the why's and how's, we also struggle each day to continue without you. We have our precious memories of our time with you - how easily you made friends, how often you made us laugh, the invaluable skills you taught us, your loyalty, and your willingness to help others.

There is emptiness in our hearts that, sadly, nothing can fill for you were truly one of a kind. However, we are at peace knowing you suffer no more and that you are in the company of your family members and friends that preceded you in death. Watch over us, Harold, for we still need your guidance.

With eternal love,
